

2021 NDSO EVENTS

Friday 29th January 2021

2:00pm Zoom

ZOOM EVENT

The event will take the form of a visit to Flentrop Orgelbouw, where we will be welcomed by their chief voicer, Dirk Koomans. The meeting will have an informal air to it. Among other things, he will be demonstrating the process of voicing a new organ pipe from start to finish.

Orgelbüchlein - LIVE EVENT @ 3.00pm

HALAM

Directions for anyone needing them: On arrival in Halam, see the Waggon pub. Back Lane runs up the side of the pub. The house is fourth on the right, with the flagpole. There is some parking on site for those with walking difficulty. Otherwise, please use the rear pub car park at the bottom of Back Lane, or park outside the church at the top end.

An excellent lunch is available prior to the meeting at the Waggon pub. Best to book in advance.

Covid Restrictions apply - 15 bubbles allowed, 15 pairs or singles, first come first served.

It is requested that – at this our first live event under new guidelines - those attending should still wear masks and as far as practicable observe social distancing.

The Orgelbüchlein (Little Organ Book) BWV 599–644 is a set of 46 chorale preludes for organ — one of them is given in two versions — by Johann Sebastian Bach.

David Butterworth offers members the chance to investigate this set of pieces together at his home in Halam with its own pipe organ, playing a selection of preludes, looking at interpretation, registration, tips on fingering and pedalling, ornamentation. The event is sure to be a hit with organists and organ music fans alike. This event is due to be our first live event following the Covid 19 pandemic and we do encourage you to attend.
